Kathi also has a Master of Divinity degree from the Interdenominational Theological Center and a Doctor of Ministry from Columbia Theological Seminary. Ordained in the African Methodist Episcopal Church in 1994, she transferred to the United Church of Christ in 1998. ## about the UCC

(United Church of Christ)

The United Church of Christ is a non-hierarchical, progressive denomination committed to the unity of the Church. It is a community of faith that seeks to respond to the Gospel of Jesus Christ in word and deed. The UCC was founded in 1957 as the union of several different Christian traditions. From the beginning of our history, we are a church that affirmed the ideal that Christians did not always have to agree to live together in communion. Our creed, "That they may all be one," is Jesus' prayer for the unity of the church. With a rich history tying faith to social justice, the UCC continues to challenge its members to explore cutting edge theology and service to the world. The UCC is one of the most diverse Christian churches in the United States. (visit www.UCC.org)
